Cinemas, theatres and a leisure centre are all close by, whilst the wider area is rich with green spaces and parks.

West Norwood is home to a growing community of London professionals, creatives and young families. You are just as likely to find evening activities at the pubs and bars as you are early morning park runs and gatherings over coffee and brunch. Just on your doorstep is Norwood park with its spectacular views of London.

LOCAL LIFE

The vibrant Norwood High Street with the new Picture House & Crystal Palace Triangle are both within easy reach and offers an abundance of restaurants, cafes and shops to enjoy.

This area is particularly well-appointed when it comes to pubs, bars and drinking venues. Lesser-known, perhaps, are the brewing companies that are also popping-up in the area. The London Beer Factory and the Gipsy Hill Brewing Company are now well-established providers of craft ales.

Meanwhile, there are of course pubs aplenty with The Paxton, The Hope and the aforementioned Knowles of Norwood known as excellent locals. There are also handy options such as The Alleyn's Head and The Bricklayers Arms nearby whilst the Rock Steady Rum Lounge offers a more alternative drinking experience.

On the first Sunday of the month, from April through to December, the area welcomes the West Norwood Feast. This is a volunteer-powered street market festival, offering over 100 stalls in five locations punting food, arts, family activities and more. Elsewhere there are a variety of cuisines on offer with the likes of The Garden (well-known for its pizza), Yoshida Sushi, Knight's Fish Bar, Four Hundred Rabbits and many others.

The Portico Gallery is on your doorstep hosting a broad range of events including art, music, performance and more. There is even The Book and Record Bar serving coffee, beers, wine and more, acting as a cultural beacon for music and book lovers alike.

VOLCANO COFFEE WORKS

As is the case across any modern city, coffee houses and cafes are a must-have in any residential area. It is no different here with the likes of the Blackbird Bakery and Otter Trading proving popular with the locals whilst the Volcano Coffee Works Café offers a spot for remote workers to settle-in.

Also worth a mention are Butter Up Coffee and The Electric Café but for very different reasons.

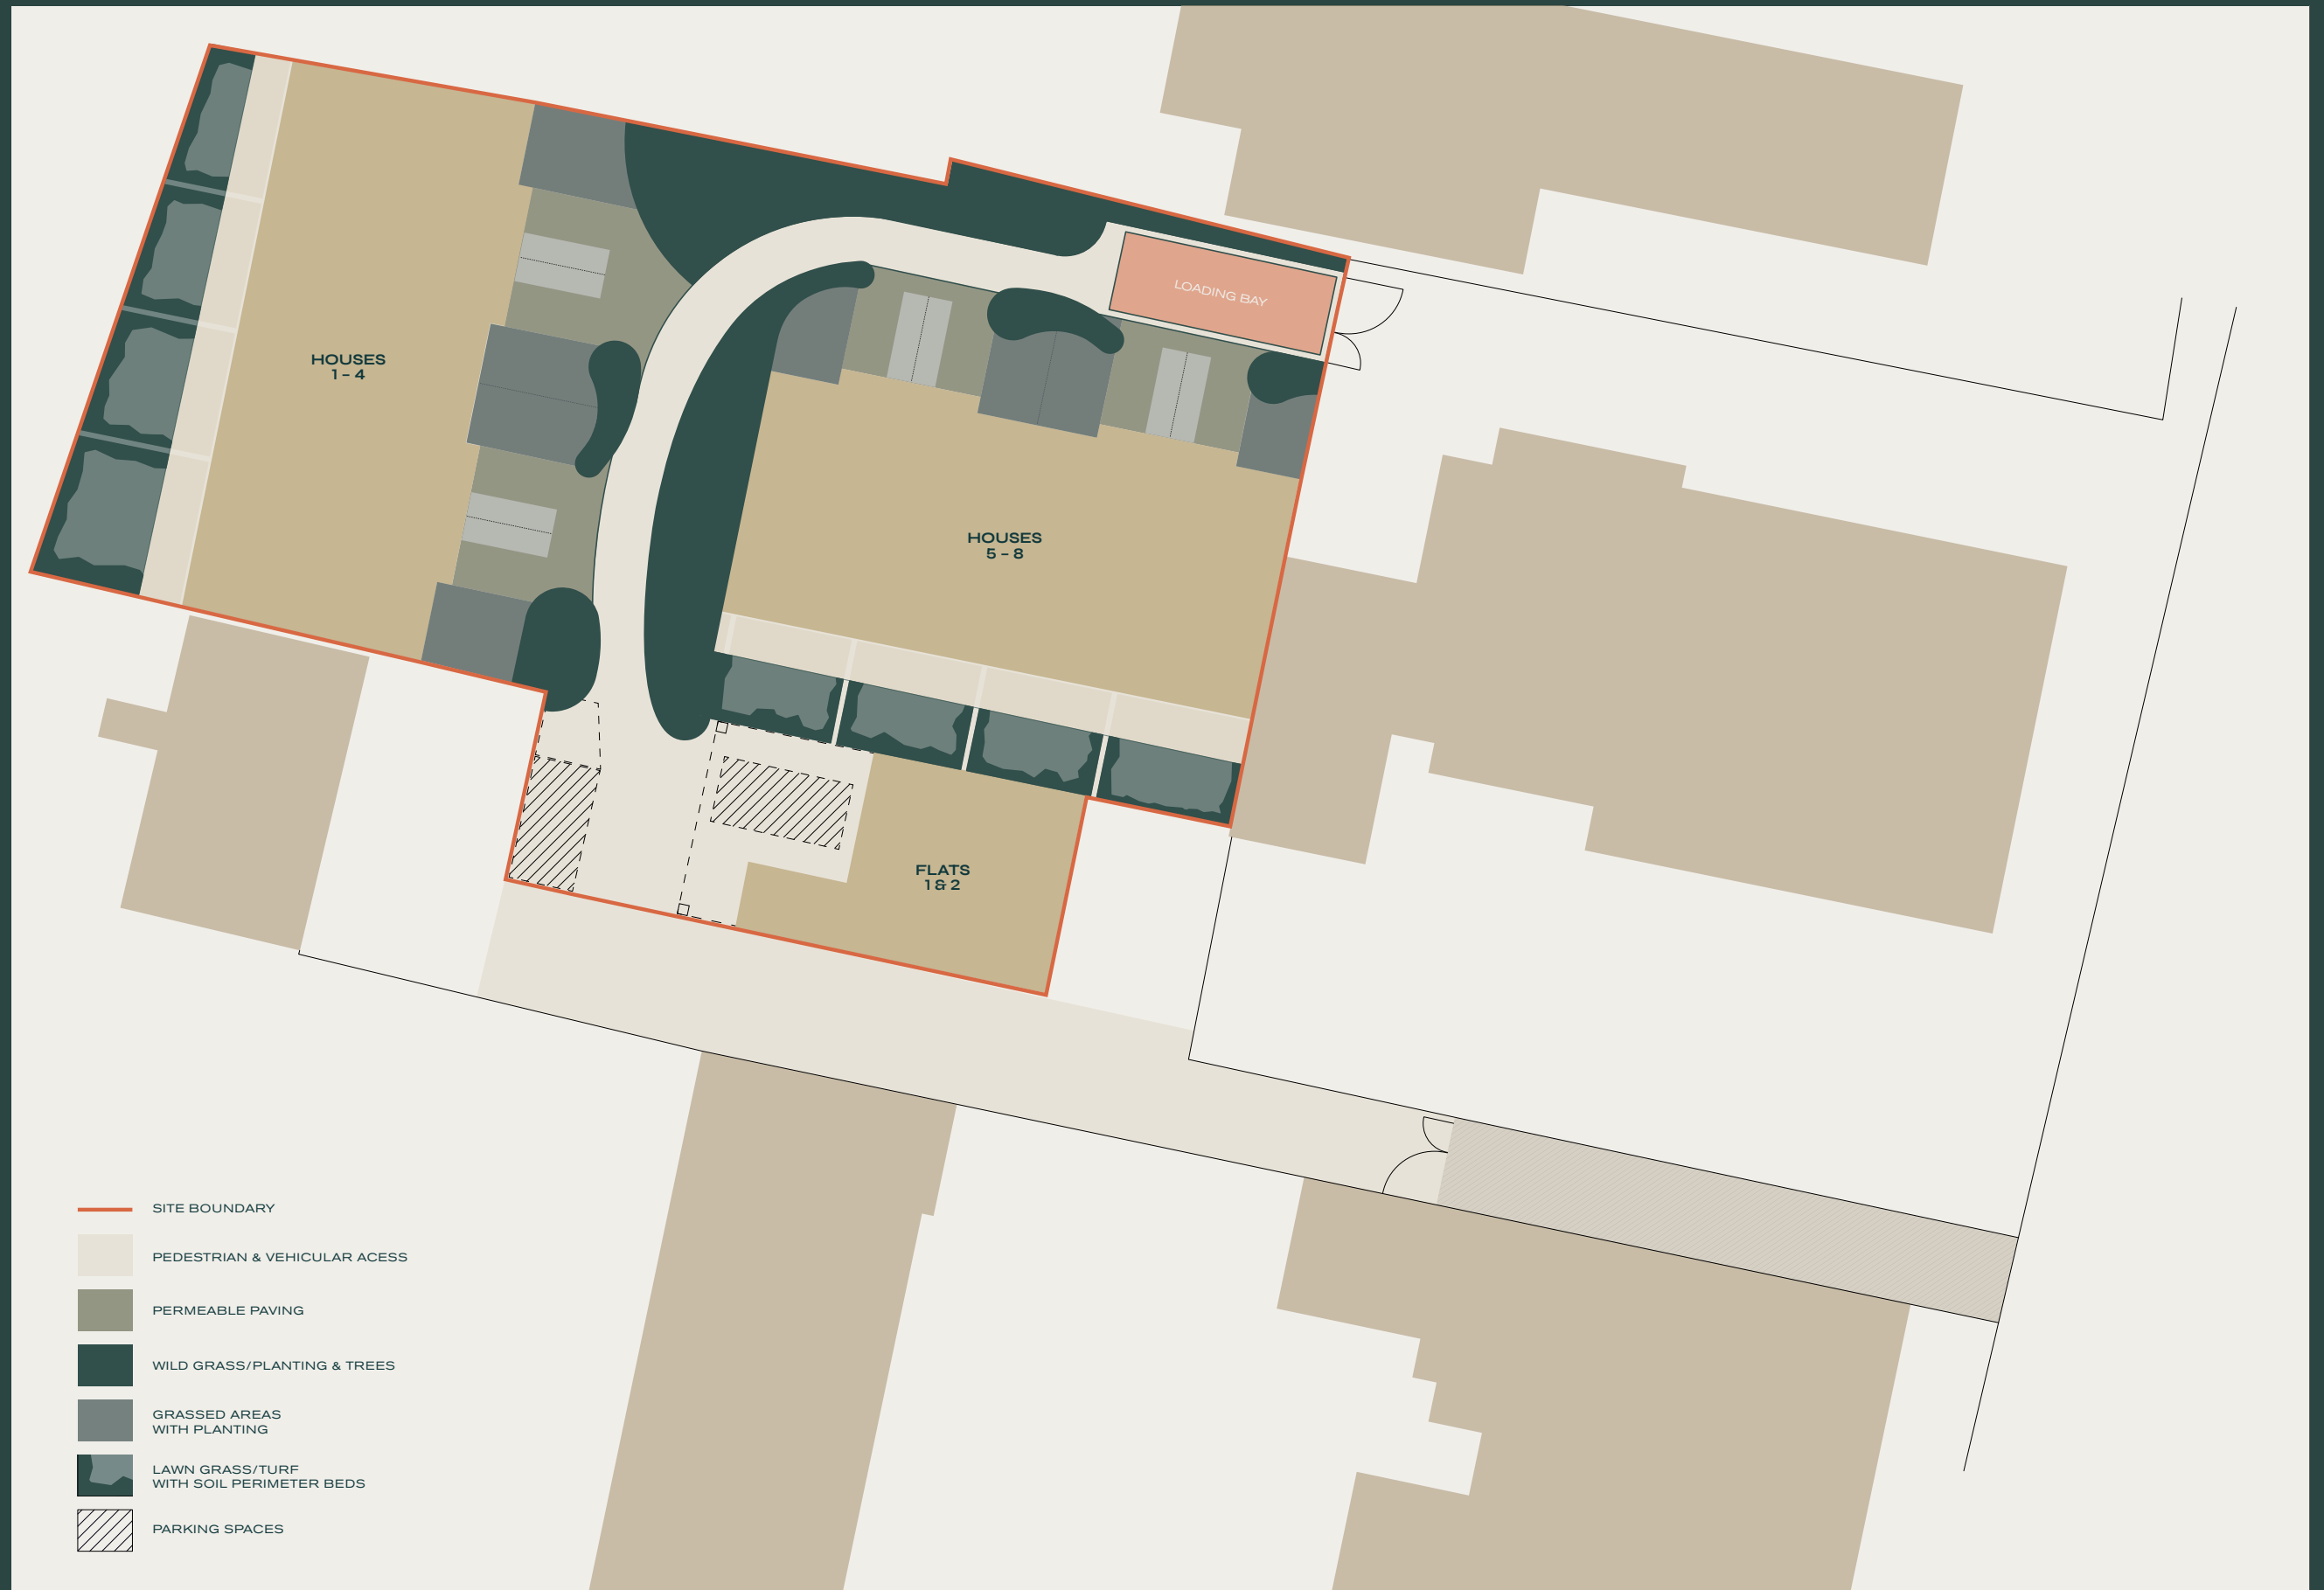

The former offers a modern take on the coffee shop with pastries, vegan snacks and homemade energy drinks.

Meanwhile, The Electric Café is a well-loved local greasy spoon and coffee shop, with great food and drink at excellent prices.
